ESTES CONSULTANCY HONOURED WITH INNOVATION AND DESIGN AWARD AT SINGAPORE ENVIRONMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD 2024.

Singapore, 21 August 2024 – Estes Consultancy, a homegrown sustainable business solutions provider, is proud to announce that it has been awarded the prestigious Innovation and Design Award at the Singapore Environmental Council Awards 2024. Established in February 2022, Estes Consultancy has quickly gained recognition for its unwavering commitment to advancing sustainability and reducing greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions through its In-house Carbon Footprint Analysis and internal training program.

The award-winning initiative by Estes Consultancy is designed to enhance the understanding of GHG emissions within the organization by identifying key contributors and areas for effective reduction. Through comprehensive education and training programs, employees are encouraged to meticulously document their consumption, fostering a culture of environmental awareness and proactive action throughout the company.

Beyond its internal efforts, Estes Consultancy positions itself as a sustainability advocate by inspiring both suppliers and customers to embark on their own sustainable journeys. The company's approach sets a positive example and shares best practices, creating a ripple effect that extends its impact throughout the supply chain and customer base. These initiatives are closely aligned with the goals of the Singapore Green Plan 2030, accelerating progress by raising awareness and galvanizing action within the community.

"Our commitment to sustainability is a reflection of our pride in serving as advocates for positive change," said Mr Jin Ng, Founder and Managing Director at Estes Consultancy. "By integrating sustainability into our core business practices, we are laying the groundwork for a more sustainable future. This award underscores our dedication to environmental stewardship and our role in contributing to global efforts to combat climate change."

Estes Consultancy's recognition at the Singapore Environmental Achievement Awards reaffirms its status as a forward-thinking consultancy dedicated to making a lasting impact on the environment. The company remains committed to promoting a greener, more sustainable world for future generations through its continued innovation and leadership in sustainability.
